

Greater Greater Washington Board of Directors

Payton Chung, LEED AP ND, CNUa, sees the promises and perils of planning every day as a resident of the Southwest Urban Renewal Area. He first addressed a city council about smart growth in 1996, accidentally authored Chicago's inclusionary housing law, and blogs at west north.

Tracy Hadden Loh loves cities, infrastructure, and long walks on the beach looking for shark teeth. She is a Fellow at the Bass Center for Transformative Placemaking in the Metropolitan Policy Program at the Brookings Institution. She previously served two years representing Ward 1 on the Mount Rainier City Council in Prince George's County, MD.

Jayson Harpster works in the healthcare industry to bring quality, affordable care to all. He is Director of Solution Operations at Embedded Healthcare and previously worked on staffing and hospital partnerships at Kaiser Permanente. Before working in healthcare he served as an intelligence analyst in the U.S. Army in Afghanistan, and separately worked on Democratic campaigns. Outside of work, he and his wife have two young daughters and live in Park View.

Pam Lee grew up driving in Southern California, but has been carless in DC since 2012. She works in real estate development at EYA, where she focuses on multifamily, mixed-income, and townhome development. Pam has experience with affordable housing development, having worked at the Cambridge Housing Authority and at Telesis, and with housing finance policy, at HUD and the Urban Institute. She feels strongly about the right to housing, and lives in DC.

Emeka Moneme is Senior Vice President and Managing Director of MG Capital, the investment and social impact platform of the Menkiti Group. Previously, he served as Deputy Executive Director of the Federal City Council, Chief Administrative Officer for WMATA, Director of the District Department of Transportation (DDOT), and as a strategist and consultant.

Nick Sementelli is a Texas native, but has lived in DC since 2005. He works as a digital strategist mainly serving advocacy organizations and publishers. Outside of the office, you can find him on the soccer field or at Nats park.

Stan Wall is a Partner at HR&A Advisors – a consulting firm providing services in real estate, economic development, and program design and implementation. He focuses on creating and implementing inclusive revitalization strategies for downtowns, neighborhoods, districts, cities, and regions through transit-oriented development, affordable housing, urban economic revitalization, and infrastructure.

Adam Weers is the President of GGWash's Board of Directors and a Principal at Trammell Crow Company with over a decade of commercial real estate development experience. He serves on Trammell Crow Company's Diversity and Inclusion Initiative Steering Committee, is a member of ULI, and is on the Public Private Partnership Council. Outside of the real estate industry he serves as Chairman of the District of Columbia Boxing & Wrestling Commission and in his free time makes a mean cheesecake.

Gerry Widdicombe is director of economic development for the Downtown DC Business Improvement District (BID). In 2013-2014 he served as executive director of the DC Tax Revision Commission. He is also board chair of the Capital Fringe and board member of Theatrewashington.
